To the Right Honorable Lord John Russell, Her Majesty's principle Secretary of State for the Home Department

The Humble Petition of ELIZABETH WALDEN a Widow.

Sheweth

That your petitioners Daughter (by her first Husband) REBECCA CULL, was sentenced at the October Sessions 1830 at the Old Bailey to be transported for 14 years. That one of the principle witnesses was your petitioners second husband who entertained a great dislike to his Daughter in Law, he is now dead and your petitioner has received a letter from her daughter dated 4th June 1837 in which she informs your petitioner she is married and has two children and that the lady in whose service she was at the time of her marriage is coming to England and would bring your petitioners daughter with her provided a remission of her sentence could be obtained. That your petitioner by honest industry had brought up numerous family who are now respectable members of society. Your petitioner therefore most humbly prays your Lordship to take into your kind consideration the punishment she had already undergone, and restore her unfortunate daughter to that family and insure their most heartfelt and grateful thanks and your petitioner is in duty bound will ever pray.
