PM Brisk steady breeze and fine clear w<sup>r</sup>. At 5 PM D. Milne (Carpenter) came aft and reported to the Master that a hole had been boared and cut in the Forecastle Bulk-head in the Cook's berth. The Master, Mr Nutt (Surgeon Supertd<sup>t</sup>), Mr Priest 2nd Officer, D. Milne and self upon examination, found that the seam had been boared by a Gimblett. J. Fackrell had the morning before borrowed a Gimblett from the Carpenter he tried the said Gimblett and found it fitted the holes made; when J. Fackrell was asked the reason he had borrowed it he said it was to put a hole in his chest; part of this hole was produced which was precisely the same thickness as the Gimblett. At 9 AM The Starboard Watch was had aft Laing, Symmonds, Fackrell, Scallion, George (Seaman) Hutton, Agar Collins &amp; Foxcroft (Ordinary) and examined respecting the holes made in bulk-head. The watch with the exception of Hutton denied having any knowledge of it as they all turned in. Hutton said it was hard all should be punished for the sake of one. He stated about ½ past 10 am on Thursday that he was sitting on his chest when the Carpenter came to the scuttle and asked Fackrell for his Gimblett. Fackrell then came out of the Cook's berth with the said Gimblett. Caroline Saunders cut her hair and confined her to the Box for using very obscene language. 1 Bag of Bread. 1 Cask of wine 55 Gall<sup>s</sup> #7 Dept<sup>fd</sup> Wty Ex April 44 Bishop.
